Local Boxer Puts Baltimore Boy Away in Fourth Round.

Kid Is Winner in Best Event of Ever ing via the Quick Route in Second Frame.

By WILLIAM PRET.

Three bouts between light-weight boxers and a battle royal entertained 500 sports at the Ardmore Athletic Club last night. Kid Egan, of Wash-ington, and Johnny Rebhan, a preliminary fighter of Baltimore, clashed in the main both, scheduled for fifteen rounds.

Egan slipped over a right swing in the fourth round, the blow landing sehind Rethards right ear, and the saltimure mitt pusher had enough, He topped on the canvax and Referee Yconore counted him out.

The best exhibition of the evening ras the curiain raiser, between Kid homas and "Lefty" Marx, of Baltiore. The Ardmore management at the sanual meeting in New York next month. William F. In an exciting game of football on the athletic field of the District Pumping Station, the Pitomster Division defeated the fast and heavy team of the Valve Division, 30 to 0. The "water owis" played rings around their opponents, outplaying them at every angle of the game. Harry Ellis, the new coach of Technical High School, has been drilling his man for the last three weeks, and the score proves that it was this coaching that won the game for them, as the Valve Operators outwelghed them by at least ten pounds to the man.

G. C. Collins, the popular manager of the "Owis," has been busy for the lase several weeks arranging the schedule between the various teams representing the different divisions of the Water Department, and confidently expects to land the championship.

CHESS TEAM CONTESTS.

Burens Championship Matches

Capital City Club Tonight. The weekly team contests which take place every Wednesday night at the Capital City Chess and Checker Club for the bureau championship of the Departmatches and lost one. They are closely followed by the Bureau of Animal Industry followed by the Bureau of Animal Industry followed by the Bureau of Chemistry, which are tied for second place, with two wins and two losses each. At this stage, therefore, the gain or loss of a match by any of these team is quite important. In last week's matches Plant Industry opposed the Secretary's Office, and atthough the game on board one, between May and Knapp, was adjourned, the former team scored a victory through Hitchcock defeating Elwood on board two, while Adams won from Evans on board three. In the meantime Animal Industry scored a point at the expense of Chemistry. In this contest Roberts, on board one, defeated Shephenson, and Parks, on board two, got the better of Gleey, the game between Pew and Straughn being postponed.
The opposing teams tonight are Chemistry against Plant Industry and Secretary's Office against Animal Industry. Play begins at 8 o'clock at the club, northwest corner of Thirteenth Street and New York Avenue. All chess levers are invited to attend.

And they say the boy is there.

Just give me even half a chance-I'd lam it to the fence: They'd need a million expensars. To solder up the dents, But sweet time I let one pass. The tempt's believe "Strike". And puts may in a hole before I get one that I like.

You say he goes for energiting— Now easy on that guff; They all come alling up to him Like sugar-coated force. He's gut the pitchers double-crossed And watchy at the hume. for when they see him at the plant They're half afraid to seeses.

Ton any ha's better in a plants— I game he ought to be. The batting just we-sixty-sight, And he time-dity-three. What gets my goat is all this shash That he is such a sizt, A humbed boselsaid book league heya Can knock 'em just as far. I know I farmed the Seet time out, And with the bases full I waited for a good one. Just to mak it to the buil. And then he fotood on with a curve That Wagner couldn't get, If I had ever leaded That old gall'd be traveling yet.

That old pill'd be over.

No matter hear you hit "em.
Or how hig or small the stakes,
The duffers stand all ready.
The stimutures you got the breaks.
Ferhage within the pears to come.
When women raise the come.
